Dear Mr. Crawford:

Thank you and the members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans Capital Granville Henderson Oury Camp for your generous donation of $25 to the National Park Service. Your donation will be used to support visitor service, maintenance and resource management activities at Stones River National Battlefield. The park relies on the support of people like the members of your SVC camp to preserve and protect the battlefield.

Thank you again for your generous donation. It will contribute to the enjoyment and understanding of our visitors for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Gilbert J. Backlund
Acting Superintendent

Dear Camp 1708, Sons of Confederate Veterans

On behalf of the Harpers Ferry National Historical Park, I would like to thank you for your donation of $ 25.00. We appreciate your willingness to support the mission of the National Park Service. This money will be placed in the park's donation account to be used for furthering park protection, maintenance, and preservation of our facilities and resources.

Your interest in and support of the park are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Rebecca L. Harriett
Superintendent
