Dear Friends,

I wanted to drop you a short personal note to thank you once again for supporting the Civil War Trust at such a generous leadership level with your recent gift.

You have already made a big difference in our battlefield preservation mission, and I want you to be one of those satisfied supporters who stay with us for many years to come. I hope that you will make a point of visiting our website at www.Civilwar.org to check out our animated battle maps, read the latest preservation news, or perhaps test your Civil War knowledge with a quiz or two.

As you may know, Charity Navigator, the nation's largest third-party charity evaluator, has given the Civil War Trust its highest possible rating of four stars for the third year in a row. We are extremely proud of this rating, and I'm also proud to report that we now have more favorable reviews on the Charity Navigator website than any other four-star rated charity in the country. I'm enclosing a sheet with more information about this rating, as well as our Capital Campaign booklet.

Please contact me personally (I have enclosed my business card) if I may ever answer any questions you have about our work together, or if I may be of any additional service to you in any way. I have had the honor of working for the Trust for twelve years, so if I don't know the answer to your question, I will find someone who does.

I hope that I will get a chance to meet you sometime at one of our events. Until then, again, many thanks, and all the best.

With warmest regards, your obed't serv't,

David N. Duncan
